

www.tmwolf.com

January 27, 2012

COAL TRUCK CATCHES ON FIRE IN KERMIT

This Story Brought to You By

KERMIT WV – At around 3 pm, a coal truck going through town in Kermit had an engine fire. The truck driver pulled the truck off the road, as the Kermit VFD was called out. The fire department was on the scene in a matter of minutes, and quickly put the fire out. It is not known what caused the fire at this time.

